ART BUSINESSES

Fernhill Glass Studio

1450 Exchange Street

Celebrating our first anniversary on February 11, 2012 from 11am to 8pm. We will be giving glass blowing demonstrations throughout the day for your enjoyment. Cake, finger food & drinks will be served.

We are excited to offer all Art Glass dated 2010 or earlier at 50% OFF!! So come on by, warm yourself up and take a piece (or two) of Art Glass home.

KALA at HIPFiSHmonthly

1017 Marine Drive

Presents the paintings of Kimberly Reed. Opening Saturday, February 11 from 5 to 7pm. Kimberly Reed, native of Chico, CA and a recent transplant to Astoria in 2009, is a self-taught painter. An education major at the University of Nevada, her large abstract paintings are heavily textured with chunky brush strokes and layers of paint to evoke expressionistic moments in time. www.kimberlyreedartist.com

Lunar Boy Gallery

1133 Commercial Street

Debating "Obsessions" a show of new works by Kim Hamblin of Portland, teaming up with Ulana Zahajkewycz of New Jersey. Hamblin's work features mixed media pieces of acrylic on panel with and obsessive quantity of precisely placed nails and Zahajkewycz, a Lunar Boy favorite, has created another fantastical set of three-dimensional paintings on hand-carved bass wood.

Old Town Framing

1287 Commercial Street

OTF = Left Brain/Right Brain Show. Maggie Shumaker and Emily Creel, trained school psychologists, show off their artistic talents and help the audience understand how the brain works. Interactive brain games, brain tricks and enjoy some brain food. Artists' reception from 5 to 8pm.

RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial Street

Presents Home Spirit: A Collection of Ceramics from Hand, Heart and Soul, a two-man show featuring both sculptural and functional pieces by Randy McClelland and David Campiche. Both artists are devotees of anagama, an ancient Japanese wood-firing technique, and are part of the community of potters who gather for group firings at Richard Rowland's Astoria Dragon Kiln.

A reception will be held Saturday, February 11, from 5 to 8pm. The show continues through February 28.

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

Astoria Hemp Works

1062 Marine Drive

Invites you to the celebration of our first anniversary and the grand opening of our new location. We're going to be celebrating with live music by Astoria's Home Grown Music Project and cake (of course!).

New gallery space means we'll have more artists works on display than ever before. Enjoy the quirky original "Artimals" of Noelle Dass, the sublime photography of Robert Potts, pottery masks by Rich McNally, and the off beat metal work of Vicky Wilson. There's lots more... Come see!

Holly McHone Jewelers

1150 Commercial Street

Featuring Chamilia's latest bead designs. Buy 3 get 1 free! Create a personalized gift perfect for your Valentine.

RESTAURANTS

Astoria Coffeehouse & Bistro

243 11th Street

ACH often features original art from the extensive private collection of restaurant owner, Jim Defeo. This month will debut works by prolific Walla Walla artist, James Lavadour, known worldwide for creating large panel set landscape paintings.

Fort George Lovell Taproom

426 14th Street

During the February, "Stout Month," Art Walk we will be showcasing a Festival of Dark Arts Preview in the Lovell Taproom. Dark visual art ranging from oil painting, charcoal, threads, metals and mixed media have been hand picked to feel stout by guest curator, Jessica Shcleif. Local artists include Agnes Field, Brandon Hoffman, Roger Hayes, Andrea Mace, Vinnie Steele, Aaron Toledo, Darren Orange, Karen Eland, Kristen Shauck, Phillip Johnson, and Shannon Meeker.

OTHER BUSINESSES SUPPORTING ART WALK
