

2nd Saturday ART WALK

brought to you by ADHDA – the Astoria Downtown Historic District Association

ART BUSINESSES

- * (1) AVA Fiber Arts Academy
1296 Duane Street
- * (2) Fernhill Glass Studio
1450 Exchange Street
- * (3) Fisher Building
42 7th Street
- * (4) KALA at HIPFiSHmonthly
1017 Marine Drive
- * (5) Lunar Boy Gallery
240 11th Street
- * (6) Old Town Framing
1287 Commercial Street
- * (7) RiverSea Gallery
1160 Commercial Street
- * (8) Studio 11
453-A 11th Street

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

- * (9) Astoria Hemp Works
1062 Marine Drive
- * (10) Analog Barbershop
250 11th Street
- * (11) Carine's Studio
211 12th Street
- * (12) Holly McHone Jewelers
1150 Commercial Street
- * (13) Vintage Hardware
380 14th Street

SUPPORTING PARTICIPANTS

- (14) Cargo in Astoria
240 11th Street
- (15) Commercial Street Antiques & Collectibles
959 Commercial Street
- (16) Foxgloves
1124 Commercial Street

RESTAURANT PARTICIPANTS

- (17) Astoria Coffeehouse & Bistro
243 11th Street
- * (18) Baked Alaska
1 12th Street
- * (19) Clemente's
1198 Commercial Street
- (20) Fort George Brewery & Public House
1483 Duane Street
- * (21) Fort George Lovell Taproom & Showroom
426 14th Street

This piece printed in association with Windermere/Pacific Land Co. | 503.325.5111 | www.windermereastoria.com

Art Walk venues are highlighted throughout town with colorful pinwheels.

 Denotes venues displaying original art exhibits.

ART BUSINESSES

AVA Fiber Arts Academy

1296 Duane Street

Academy instructors and students will be demonstrating skills taught in classes, including weaving, spinning, and knitting.

Fernhill Glass Studio

1450 Exchange Street

Excited to participate again in the Art Walk. We will be giving glass blowing demonstrations thought the day for your enjoyment. So come on by, warm yourself up and watch art happen.

Fisher Building

42 7th Street

Printmaker and calligrapher Rebecca Read and textile artist Constance Waisanen stitch together two ancient crafts, the work of the quill and the needle. Read offers monotypes with lusciously layered calligraphic text and mixed media embellishment. Waisanen unveils color-drenched hand-dyed works with her magnificent signature stitched designs. Individual pieces by each artist will be on display as well as several unique collaborative works. Join us for refreshments, music and fresh art!

KALA at HIPFISHmonthly

1017 Marine Drive

KALA presents an expanded selection of works in conjunction with "Nudes Downtown: A Compendium of Art Inspired by Au Naturel," including work by Astoria painter Nick Knapton.

Lunar Boy Gallery

1133 Commercial Street

Announcing: The Crow Show, featuring a beautiful series of crow paintings by North Coast artist, Sandy Tweed, who is joined by a roster of friends dishing up a variety of takes on the corvus theme. Tweed's ethereal birds are painted in acrylic on her special secret textured surface increasing the mystical effect.

Old Town Framing

1287 Commercial Street

Join us for "Art, Antiques and Wine" a fundraising event for the Lower Columbia Preservation Society. A silent auction filled with antiques, art, furniture and fixtures from shops and personal collections. This evening will be brightened by marvelous wines and appetizers. The silent auction will run through March 29. Come and find your treasure while supporting a great organization.

RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial Street

In celebration of the Art Center Gallery's annual exhibition, Au Naturel: The Nude In the 21st Century, at Clatsop Community College, RiverSea Gallery and six other Astoria businesses present Nudes Downtown: A Compendium of Art Inspired by Au Naturel. This multi-venue exhibition will run concurrently with Au Naturel, offering works available for viewing February 23 through April 4. In addition, there will be a special downtown gallery walk scheduled for Saturday, March 3 from 6 to 8pm.

Studio 11

453-A 11th Street

Mary Tanguay Webb's one night show, "Eleven Portraits of Eleven Women" at Studio 11, in conjunction with Women's History month. Artist reception is 6 to 8pm. Each woman will take home her own painting. A sample of Tanguay Webb's work can be seen at: www.astoriaarts.com/mwebb.

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

Astoria Hemp Works

1062 Marine Drive

Featuring original art works by Astoria artists as well as Northwest regional painters, photographers, glass blowers and metal workers. Live music, wine and light snacks will be provided. Please join us at our new location.

Analog Barbershop

250 11th Street

Featuring NW Unlimited...History in Vogue (Bill Brooks) signed collectible memorabilia. Mimosa reception from 5 to 9pm.

Carine's Studio

211 12th Street

Features fine silver and bronze Jewelry designed and made right here in Astoria. Each piece of Carine's jewelry is a one of a kind and anything but traditional. This month we will be featuring work by local Artist Karen Seaton Josephs who creates free standing bird feeders from recycled glassware. Also featured this month will be tumbled glass art and authentic beach glass jewelry.

Holly McHone Jewelers

1150 Commercial Street

Featuring Koji pearls. Koji will be on site with South Sea pearls, Black Pearls from Tahiti, big White Pearls from Australia, Golden Pearls from the Phillipines, and stunning Akoyas from Japan. Saturday, March 10 from 3 to 8pm.

Vintage Hardware

380 14th Street

Provides the ideal backdrop for a one-night-only, 2nd annual exhibit of Found Art by Clatsop Community College Basic Design students. Inspired by artists of the early twentieth century art movement called Dada, students have created works of art that incorporate everyday objects and convey a meaningful message to the viewer.

RESTAURANTS

Baked Alaska

1 12th Street

Kim Taylor of "Visually Hugging Astoria" takes breathtaking photos of Astoria from an interesting perspective. Miranda Rinks uses oils, acrylics, and watercolors to capture the scenic and culinary world around her. Miranda will be doing a live painting during the Art Walk.

Fort George Lovell Taproom & Showroom

426 14th Street

Announcing the Clatsop Community College Auction Preview Show.

The CCC Foundation is presenting a preview of original artwork and creative offerings developed by CCC staff, faculty and friends. The work shown will be previewed for the month and up for auction April 21 at the Astoria Golf & Country Club. Proceeds to enhance educational programming for MERTS Campus programs.

OTHER BUSINESSES SUPPORTING ART WALK

Foxgloves

1124 Commercial Street

Artisans Created Gifts. Carrying an ever changing array of fine hand-crafted gifts. Including pottery, hats, jewelry, clocks, telescopes, rock vases and much more.